MOTILAL NEHRU COLLEGE (EVENING)

Founded in 1965, Motilal Nehru College (Evening) is a constituent college of the University of Delhi, one of Asia's oldest and most respected public universities. It is located on the University's South Campus in New Delhi. The College is named after Pandit Motilal Nehru, the eminent jurist, statesman and leader of India's freedom movement, and continues his commitment to intellectual freedom, rational inquiry and public service.

For six decades, the College has worked to make excellent higher education accessible to all. It serves a diverse student body that includes many first-generation learners and working professionals. The College offers undergraduate programmes in the humanities, social sciences and commerce under the multidisciplinary framework of the National Education Policy 2020. Its faculty are accomplished teachers and active researchers. They publish in peer-reviewed national and international journals and lead funded research projects. The College places particular emphasis on the continuing professional development of teachers. It regularly organises faculty development programmes, workshops and certificate courses in emerging areas such as artificial intelligence in research, digital pedagogy and responsible academic practice.

Collaborating Institution for the 5-Day FDP
14 – 18 December 2026 | Hybrid Mode

OBJECTIVES OF THE FDP

- 01 To understand Gen Z learners, their learning preferences, digital behaviour, expectations, motivations and challenges in the contemporary higher education environment.
- 02 To equip faculty with innovative pedagogical strategies for improving Gen Z students' attention, participation, engagement and active learning through experiential, collaborative and technology-enabled approaches.
- 03 To develop faculty competence in the responsible use of Generative AI for teaching, learning, assessment and academic support while addressing issues of academic integrity, critical thinking and AI dependency.
- 04 To strengthen faculty-student communication and mentoring skills for building meaningful relationships, providing constructive feedback, managing classroom challenges and supporting students' holistic development.
